from the Railway Goods Shed. In addition to the transportation, the contractor should arrange for loading and unloading and stacking of the bags in a proper manner as per the instructions of the official in charge of the godown, by his own agency, and at his own cost.

4. The rate to be quoted is for a bag of 90 seers, having a margin of 10 seers, on either side. Separate rates may be given in respect of standard cloth and gunny bales.

5. Each tenderer should produce a solvency certificate issued by the Amildar of the Taluk.

6. The contractor, whose tender is accepted, should execute a 'Mutchalika' on a general stamp paper of annas ten, binding himself to conform to the conditions to be stipulated by the undersigned, before his contract is let in, and should also furnish a cash security of Rs. 1,000 to ensure due fulfilment of these conditions.

7. The successful tenderer should arrange for the prompt transportation of the goods to the godowns, as directed by the Officer of the Food Supplies in charge of such work in the Railway Goods Shed. He should also undertake to provide sufficient number of lorries for the prompt execution of the work entrusted to him.

8. If the contractor gives room for any complaint, like pilferage of goods on the way, amount to the extent of such loss to Government will be recovered from the security amount and he will also be held liable for any action that could be taken against him for such malpractices. Should there be any delay in transporting the stocks entrusted to him the very day, the same will be arranged to be conveyed by other means at the cost of the contractor and he will also be held liable for further damages incurred in such circumstances.

9. For the lorries necessary number of coolies will have to be provided by the contractor, and he will himself bear such charges. The rate to be furnished will be inclusive of all such incidental charges. He must be able to clear, when required a maximum number of about 10,000 bags per day. The lorries should be provided with tarpaulins.

10. The tenders will be disposed off under the usual rules, applicable thereto, the lowest rate quoted, being generally accepted, the orders of the Director of Food Supplies in Mysore, Bangalore, in this behalf, being final, who does not bind himself to accept the lowest, or to assign any reason whatever, for the rejection of any tender.

11. The Director of Food Supplies in Mysore, Bangalore, reserves the right of cancelling the contract at any time without assigning any reason whatever.

12. Further particulars may be had from this office during working hours.
